

BUILDING STRONG FAMILIES THROUGH PLAY

Part 1 – What is Play?

Play is defined as "engaging in activity for enjoyment and recreation rather than a serious or practical purpose". Play is enjoyable, spontaneous, and child-driven. For many adults, play can appear to be without purpose, but it really is the key to learning as children are actively engaged, intrinsically motivated and often comfortable in the world of play.

Types of Play:

Learning about the Physical World:

Types of Play	Definitions	Examples
CREATIVE PLAY	- Allows children to use their imagination and express their emotions, feelings, and ideas through different medium	-Painting -Playing with "loose parts" -Combining materials into a new form
EXPLORATORY PLAY	 Explores an environment through their body (e.g., jumping and swinging) and their senses (touch, see, smell, hear and taste) 	-Building sandcastle -Mouthing an object
MASTERY PLAY	 Understands their relationship with the physical (limits, balance, respect, control, power) and affective ingredients (what impact does it have on them?) of the environments of the world around them 	-Digging holes -Fire building -Blocking drains to create puddles
OBJECT PLAY	 Uses sequences and combinations of hand-eye manipulations and movements to bring about new understanding of possibilities of everyday objects 	-Playing with the objects in unexpected or unconventional ways -Making music with pots and pans

Learning about Self:

Types of Play	Definitions	Examples
COMMUNICATION	- Uses words and nonverbal	-Singing
PLAY	communication (e.g., gestures, hands, and body language) to play	-Rhyming -Charades -Pat-a-cake

10537-44 Street, Edmonton, Alberta T6A 1W1

Phone: 780-638-6810

Fax: 780-638-6844

DRAMATIC PLAY	- Takes on a new role and act out that role	-Making plays, song and dance routines -Pretending to be famous
SOCIO-DRAMATIC	- Involves acting out real and potential	-Playing house
PLAY	experiences of an intense personal, social, domestic, or interpersonal nature	-Going to school
ROLE PLAY	- Explores different ways of being,	-Enacting adults – driving and interpreting them from their own frame	talking on the phone
400	of reference
SOCIAL PLAY	- Engages in social or interactive situation	-Board games
	where everyone is expected to follow the set rules	-Conversations

Learning about Body and Limits:

Types of Play	Definitions	Examples
ROUGH AND TUMBLE	- Experiences friendly and positive close	-Wrestling
PLAY	encounters, social bonding, physical activities, and insights about self in relation to others	-Physical contact games
LOCOMOTOR PLAY	- Involves movement play	-Chasing
		-Climbing
		-Jumping
(2) (3) (3) (2) (2)		-Swinging
2		-Hula-hooping

Learning about Humanity:

Types of Play	Definitions	Examples
DEEP PLAY	- Encounters with risky experiences and thrills	-High tree climbing -Biking along parapet
FANTASY PLAY	- Is driven by child's imagination and assess other realities	-Being a fire breathing dragon -Casting spells

Fax: 780-638-6844

IMAGINATIVE PLAY	- Plays without limits of any conventional rules	-Being a tree -Eating invisible food
RECAPITULATIVE PLAY	- Allows the child to explore ancestry, history, and earlier human evolution	-Rituals -Stories
SYMBOLIC PLAY	- Uses objects or actions to represent other objects or actions.	-Using a banana as a telephone

(Hughes, 2006; Play Scotland, 2017)

10537-44 Street, Edmonton, Alberta T6A 1W1

Phone: 780-638-6810

Fax: 780-638-6844

Parent Resources:

Encourage Play: What is play? https://www.encourageplay.com/teach-through-play

Play Scotland: Play Types Toolkit https://www.playscotland.org/wp-content/uploads/Play-Scotland-Play-Types-Tooolkit-bringing-more-play-into-the-school-day.pdf